All About April Fool’s Day

April 1st is just around the corner, which means it’s time for April Fool’s Day! April Fool’s Day is an annual celebration in some European and Western countries. The day can be spent playing practical, harmless jokes on neighbors, friends and families. There is a lot of speculation about how the day actually started. But, the history of this day goes back to the 1700’s, when English pranksters began popularizing the annual tradition by playing jokes on each other. Historians also argue that the day may have began in 16th century France, during the Grego-Roman festival called Hilaria to celebrate the first day after the vernal equinox. Either way, our present-day culture has kept the tradition going with jokes, pranks, and fun for all! Learn some fast facts from around the world about April Fool’s Day below:

- In France, April 1st is called “Poisson d’Avril”
- In Scotland, April Fool’s Day lasts two days and victims of pranks are called gowks (cuckoo birds). The second day is known as Taily Day.
- In England and Canada, pranks are only played in the morning of April 1st.

Safety Tips for the Break

As we move into the break, we hope that you will all take the time to relax and enjoy your time off. While you are away, please keep the following tips in mind for a safe break:

- If you encounter someone who is rude or discriminates against you in public, ignore the person and leave the area as soon as possible. Do not respond to rudeness with rudeness; the safest and most intelligent thing to do is to walk away.
- If an employee of a business discriminates against you, leave the area, and write down the time, place, what happened, and name of the employee, if you have it.
- It is important to report inappropriate behavior to a store or office manager – the company or office will want to know if their employee is using inappropriate behavior. Stacy can help you decide if you want to make a report and how to do it. Stacy’s email is sar72@pitt.edu.

We are sharing these tips because it is good to be prepared in case something negative happens, but we are also confident that your break will be filled with calm and happiness. Have a wonderful break!

ELI Activity

Easter Egg Hunt

Keep your eyes peeled tomorrow for Easter eggs hidden around the ELI! There will be over 50 colorful plastic eggs in various locations, including the classrooms, computer lab, Vault, and hallways. Some eggs will be clearly visible, but you will have to scrutinize every corner of the ELI to find the rest.

Don’t get frustrated if you can’t find any. Be persistent! You might have to suspend your search once your class begins, but you can utilize the breaks to resume your task.

Opening each egg will reveal a sweet treat. The treat is yours to keep. You can keep the egg too, but if you don’t want it, please place it in the basket on the table outside the computer lab or in the basket in the Vault.

What is the purpose of this activity? It’s a tradition! Although Easter is a religious holiday, many customs associated with this holiday are linked to disparate ideas and beliefs. These days hunting for Easter eggs is not considered a religious activity and all kinds of people, including both children and adults, like to get involved.

It is undeniable that ELI students have the tenacity to find every single egg!
ELI Lockers

Please note that ELI lockers must be cleaned out by 12:00 pm on Friday, April 13. Locks must be removed. Locks left on lockers after April 13 will be cut off, and anything left in lockers will be placed in lost and found. Please see the ELI main office if you have any questions.

I-20 Expiration Dates for F-1 Students

By Stacy Ranson

The end of the semester is coming soon! If you are an F-1 student, please check the expiration date on your I-20. On page 1 of your I-20, under #5, you will see a beginning date for your studies and a completion date for your studies. Remember that it is your responsibility to make sure that your I-20 does not expire! If your I-20 will expire at the end of this semester, you must see Stacy if you want to extend your time at the ELI. It is too late to request an extension after your I-20 has expired, so please take a moment to check now.

ELI Spring Schedules and Book Swap

If you are continuing in the ELI next term, you may pick up your new schedule in the ELI main office any time after 12:00 pm on Thursday, May 10. Classes start Friday, May 11. The ELI will also make the Vault available to students on Thursday, May 10 from 12:00-2:00 pm for a textbook swap. If you would like to meet up with your classmates to sell or exchange textbooks for the new term, the ELI will provide updated book lists for classes and the space; the negotiations are all up to you!

by Stacy Ranson

The ELI would like to invite you to the Closing Ceremony for this semester. The ceremony will be on April 12, from 1:00-3:00 p.m. in the Kurtzman Room of the William Pitt Union. We’ll take pictures, have some refreshments, and hand out attendance certificates at the ceremony. You all have played a big role in making this semester great—we hope you’ll come celebrate with us!

ELI Final Exam Schedule Spring 2018

The ELI gives final exams at the end of the term. These exams are worth 30% of the final grade for each class. There are no excused absences for finals. The ELI does not give early final exams or makeup exams. Please note the following schedule and plan to be present for the finals.

ELI Pre-registration Summer 2018

If you plan to study at the ELI next term, you must pre-register with Stacy in room M22. If you do not pre-register with Stacy, the ELI cannot guarantee your place for the next term. If you plan to take a vacation term, you must see Stacy to register for that, too. The ELI will then electronically register you with the University of Pittsburgh. You will need to check the ELI News later in the term for information on how and when to pay your tuition.

Sponsorship Letters

If you have an official sponsorship letter from your government (SACM or CBIE, for example) you must submit it to the ELI Main Office. Students must give an updated sponsor letter to the ELI and to the Student Payment Center each term. If you have any questions about this, please visit the ELI Main Office.

All sponsored students must also complete an information sheet in the ELI Main Office. The ELI must contact sponsors throughout the term, and we require updated information about the student’s sponsor and advisor. Students must complete this form each semester and when their sponsor information changes.

ELI Writing Contest

The ELI is holding a competition for students in all writing classes. There will be one winner in each level (2,3,4,5,6), and the winners will be announced at the ELI Closing Ceremony.

If you have written a good composition in your writing class this semester, you should tell your writing teacher that you would like to enter it in the writing contest. Your teacher will then submit your paper for you. Your entry will be read anonymously by judges (your name will be removed from the paper, so they will not know who you are). The judges will choose the best composition from each level.

The deadline for entries is Tuesday, April 3 at 4:00 pm.

If you are in level 4, 5, or 6, your entry must be an essay that you wrote in class this semester. If you are in level 2 or 3, your entry can be a shorter composition, even a single paragraph. Each student can enter only one composition.

Good luck!

First Day of Summer 2018 Term

Please remember that if you are planning to study at the ELI next term, the first day of official attendance is Friday, May 11, 2018. If you arrive at the ELI after the first day of official attendance, you will be counted absent for each day that you miss. If you cannot arrive by Friday, May 18, you will need to wait until the next semester to attend the ELI. Please see Stacy if you cannot arrive by May 18.

FI Students and End-of-Term Grace Period

The Department of Homeland Security requires students to complete all levels of the ELI program in order to receive the 60-day grace period following the completion of study. This means that if you complete level 6 at the ELI, you will have 60 days after your last day of study to remain in the U.S.

If you complete study at the ELI before taking level 6, you will have a two-week grace period after your final day of class. This means that you will need to leave the U.S. within 2 weeks of your last day of study if you do not complete level 6.

Please note that the grace period is different for students who transfer to a new program. If you transfer to a new program at any time, you must begin study at the first available term for the new program. You are permitted to be out of school for up to 5 months before beginning the first available term of your new program, however. Please see Stacy if you have questions about these policies.

Paying Tuition Summer 2018

You will be able to pay your tuition starting April 2. You should pay your tuition for the summer 2018 term before May 17, 2018. If you pay after this date, you will be charged late fees. Check your account by logging in to my.pitt.edu and clicking PittPay. There are several ways to pay your tuition.

- eCheck: Free online transfer from a US bank account to your Pitt account.
- Payment plan: $55 fee, see http://payments.pitt.edu/payment-plans/
- Cash, check, or money order: Visit the Student Payment Center room G-7 Thackeray Hall.
- Credit cards: online only at my.pitt.edu—you may not use a credit card at Thackeray Hall. There is an additional 2.75% fee for using a credit card.

Transfer Process

Students with FI visas who want to transfer to a new school must see Stacy to complete the transfer. You must bring a copy of the acceptance letter and the transfer form from the new school. You may transfer at any time during the term, but you must complete this process to remain in legal status. Remember that if you complete your final term of study at level 6 at the ELI, you have a 60-day grace period. During that time, you may stay in the U.S. without studying, and you may request a transfer at any time during that 60-day period. If you do not complete level 6, you have a 2-week grace period, and you must request a transfer within that time.

If you do not request a transfer during the grace period, you will be out of status at the end of your grace period, and it will be too late to transfer your SEVIS record. Please see Stacy if you have any questions about this process.

What’s Happening Around Pitt’s Campus?

As a student at the ELI, you have the opportunity to participate in various student affairs events throughout the Pitt campus. Consider attending any of the below events this week or next with a fellow ELI student or to make a new friend! For questions email elipitt@pitt.edu or visit the student affairs master event calendar at www.events.pitt.edu.

TEDx University of Pittsburgh

Date: Saturday, March 3, 11am-4pm

Location: William Pitt Union

Registration: Pitt student tickets will require a $10 deposit per session. This deposit will be refunded in full upon attendance. Remember to purchase using your Pitt email and to bring your Pitt ID to the event to receive your refund. Visit www.tedx.pitt.edu/tickets to register.

About: Join this event to hear local speakers from different fields give their perspective on the wide array of topics, and how Pittsburgh is the perfect place to “Rethink” what you know and think you know.

Income Tax Information

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is the department of the U.S. government that is responsible for collecting taxes. If you lived in the U.S. during 2017, you must send the IRS some information. All international students who are not residents of the U.S. must file IRS Form 8843. Your spouses and children must also file this form. You may have to file other forms, as well. You can find form 8843 online at https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/f8843.pdf.

You must send your forms to the IRS before April 15, 2018. If you need help filling out the IRS forms or have questions about taxes, there are many resources that can help you.

Some of you will receive a 2017 Tuition Statement from the University of Pittsburgh. Students use this statement when they need to pay taxes. If you did not work in the U.S. during 2017, you do not need to pay taxes, and you don’t need to use this statement. If you did not work, you must still file form 8843, though.

You can find more information about filing taxes and tax resources at https://ois.pitt.edu/resources/taxes/tax-assistance/.

Please note: The ELI does not have any tax professionals on staff. If you have more questions about filing taxes, please contact the IRS or a tax professional.

Sponsored Students and Final Exams

Please note that if you are a sponsored student, and you miss your final exam for any reason, or if you fail the final exam, your sponsor will be notified immediately. Final exams in the ELI are worth 30% of the overall final grade, and both the ELI and your sponsors expect you to take the exams and to perform as well as you can on them. Remember, too, that satisfactory academic progress is a requirement of the F1 visa. If you fail courses, your F1 visa may be revoked. Please check the posted schedules for ELI final exams and plan your schedule accordingly.

FI Students and Part Time Study

Students with F1 visas have the benefit of taking a vacation term for part time study. If you have studied full time at the ELI for two semesters, you can choose to take a break next semester or to study part time. You may only take one vacation term during your study at the ELI.

Please remember that you must pre-register for this benefit. You cannot change to a vacation term after the term starts. There are no exceptions to this rule. The deadline for choosing a vacation term or part time study for F1 students is April 9, 2018.

Also, please remember that Saudi and Kuwaiti students who are sponsored by their governments are not allowed to study part time because of sponsor rules. If you are a sponsored student and would like to study part time, you must provide a letter of permission from your sponsor before April 9. This letter must be in English. The ELI does not make these requests for students; you must speak to your sponsor yourself.

Letters of Recommendation

Many of you will need to ask Stacy for a letter of recommendation if you are applying to other institutions. There are two important things to remember when making a request for a letter. The first factor is that letters of recommendation are based on your performance at the ELI. Stacy uses your grade reports as a resource for information about your performance. If you miss a lot of classes and don’t do your work, your letter of recommendation will not be very strong.

The second important factor is time. Please remember that it takes approximately one week to receive a letter of recommendation. Stacy has many letters to write, and she cannot provide them immediately when you ask for them. This means that if you need a letter before the semester break in April, you should request it by Monday, April 9. If you request a letter after this date, or during the break, you will have to wait until after the next term begins. Please plan ahead when making your requests.

Mark your calendars!
