

Improve Your English

with classes at the University of Pittsburgh, a top 32 public university in the U.S. and a top 45 global university (U.S. News & World Report, 2023)

English for Success

- Training to help you improve your English and achieve your educational, professional and personal goals
- Intensive English Program - speaking, listening, grammar, reading and writing classes available
- Professional and Academic English Program for graduate students and professionals (June-July)
- I-20 for an F-1 student visa available for full-time study; part-time options available
- Certificate of Attendance and grade report available

Conditional Admission Options

- Guaranteed admission possible with the Path to Pitt Program, an alternate to conditional admission, for undergraduate applicants who are academically ready but need additional English training
- Conditional admission alternatives and TOEFL/ IELTS/Duolingo waiver options with partner programs for eligible students

Learn from Leaders in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

- Established in 1964, among the oldest intensive English programs in the U.S.
- Accredited by CEA, the highest standard of excellence
- Authors of the Pitt Series in English as a Second Language

Experience U.S. Culture & Campus Life

- Live in Pittsburgh, one of “America’s Most Livable Cities” (as voted by Forbes and The Economist)
- Use English outside of the classroom on organized social and cultural activities
- Be part of the University community and access:
 - University libraries, gyms/fitness facilities, and computing labs
 - Discounted cultural activities

Now accepting applications for Summer and Fall 2024!

Contact our admissions team at elipitt@pitt.edu or visit eli.pitt.edu.